1. Scope

1.1 Identification. This Software Version Description (SVD) applies to the Central Issue Facility (CIF) running on Army Standard Information Management System (ASIMS) and networked AIX operating system on UNIX platforms.

1.2 System Overview. CIF is part of the ISM Project which is an Army-wide Major Automated Information System (MAIS) initiative. The primary objective of ISM is to enhance, through automation, installation management functions. ISM applications consist of standard procedures packaged into functional applications which automate as well as integrate day-to-day installation processes. ISM applications use the Installation Level Integrated Data Base (ILIDB), which is the central repository for data that is common to more than one ISM application, and various local databases that contain data elements unique to the individual ISM applications.

The purpose of the CIF ISM is to provide precise management of organizational clothing and individual equipment (OCIE) in a central issue facility. Benefits expected from using CIF include improved overall property management, increased accuracy and timeliness of CIF information, and decreased administrative costs. CIF functions are computing and maintaining stockage levels, processing and documenting OCIE records, maintaining supply records, and preparing required reports.

1.3 Document Overview.   This document provides the instructions necessary for the implementation of the formal Software Change Package (SCP) LA2-A09-02-00-A of CIF.   It informs the users of the changes made to the system and provides Point of Contacts (POCs) to be contacted in case of problems.
